

Lavenham Library

We would like to begin by wishing all our borrowers a Happy and Healthy New Year. Our thanks also go to The Friends of Lavenham Library for their continuing support, and our stalwart volunteers, without whom we could not run all our events and activities. Pop in any time to see how you can help or check our Facebook page or website

Our library may be the smallest in Suffolk but we are bucking the national trend with an increase in visitors and loans over the last year – visit regularly and help us maintain this

The Friends of Lavenham Library provided the refreshments at the Lavenham Literary Festival and raised almost £600. Thank you to everyone who helped, especially Cockfield W I Book Group who donated delicious cakes
